Dear Dr Wacek Kijewski

MINERVA PRESS LIMITED – IN LIQUIDATION

I refer to your fax dated 11 January 2003, the contents of which I note.

I am very concerned that your book appears to be available for order at Amazon.com.uk. My understanding was that initially the books would not be available to order, and details would eventually be taken off Amazon. I have in fact ordered your book with a delivery date for the last two weeks in February 2003. I am trying to contact Amazon to ascertain what the position is.

However, I would be surprised that the order will be fulfilled, as stock was kept by the subsidiary which was placed into liquidation. Details of who purchased the stock is given in the creditors report.

I will revert back to you once I have ascertained the position with Amazon.

Yours sincerely

John Redmond
