Dear Mr. Johnson

I understand from my London Office that you were trying to contact my son Pablo for the publication of your book. Pablo is busy in completing the project he undertook last month and away from London. I am sure I can help you to get your book published or printed (if it is a reprint order). You could kindly fax me the details.

Kind regards,

Ajit Singh

 Minerva is still alive! Unbelievable!
 The printing in India is cheaper.
 Do they supply distributors in other
 Commonwealth countries? JK
